Write

In Life Doesn't Frighten Me, Maya Angelou uses words to express her bravery, confidence and choices she makes when she faces challenges. Her words empower us to be daring and strong in moments where we may feel afraid or uncertain.

Write a story or a poem about a time that you felt brave, overcame a challenge or persisted to reach a goal.
Shadows on the wall
Noises down the hall
Life doesn’t frighten me at all
Bad dogs barking loud
Big ghosts in a cloud
Life doesn’t frighten me at all.

Mean old Mother Goose
Lions on the loose
They don’t frighten me at all
Dragons breathing flame
On my counterpane
That doesn’t frighten me at all.

I go boo
Make them shoo
I make fun
Way they run
I won’t cry
So they fly
I just smile
They go wild
Life doesn’t frighten me at all.
Tough guys in a fight
All alone at night
Life doesn’t frighten me at all.
Panthers in the park
Strangers in the dark
No, they don’t frighten me at all.

That new classroom where
Boys pull all my hair
(Kissy little girls
With their hair in curls)
They don’t frighten me at all.

Don’t show me frogs and snakes
And listen for my scream,
If I’m afraid at all
It’s only in my dreams.
I’ve got a magic charm
That I keep up my sleeve,
I can walk the ocean floor
And never have to breathe.

Life doesn’t frighten me at all
Not at all
Not at all
Life doesn’t frighten me at all.

Discover

We are all unique, strong and loveable in our own special ways!
Watch The Reflection In Me, created by Fable Vision. Then, think about and discuss, "What makes you you?"

Sing about what makes you special with Sesame Street!

Check out the NMAAHC Joyful ABC activity book, A is for Amazing, to celebrate who you are with fun activities.

Create

Create a word portrait. Start by drawing a self-portrait (a picture of yourself) on a piece of paper with markers and crayons.

Then, fill the empty space around your self-portrait with colorful words. What words can you use to describe who you are? What do you love about your mind and body? What makes you unique?
Hey Black Child
Do you know who you are
Who you really are
Do you know you can be
What you want to be
If you try to be
What you can be

Hey Black Child
Do you know you are strong
I mean really strong
Do you know you can do
What you want to do
If you try to do
What you can do

Hey Black Child
Do you know where you are going
Where you’re really going
Do you know you can learn
What you want to learn
If you try to learn
What you can learn

Hey Black Child
Be what you can be
Learn what you must learn
Do what you can do
And tomorrow your nation
Will be what you want it to be
Introducing Poetry to Young Children

Poetry is for everyone, including young children! There are so many different types of poetry, from rhyming and free verse to haikus and sonnets, and each kind offers young children a playful and unique way to develop important literacy skills. With poems, children learn:

- Rhyme and rhythm
- Phonemic awareness (the sounds letters make)
- Syllables
- Sentence structure
- Vocabulary
- Imagination and creativity
- Storytelling skills

Use the children’s books below to introduce your little one to the concept of poetry, rhyming and important African American poets.
